

alternative modernisms

an international,
interdisciplinary
conference

Keynote Speakers:

Professor Jean-Michel Rabaté (U. Penn.)

Professor Griselda Pollock (Leeds)

Professor Ástráður Eysteinnsson (Iceland)

This three-day, international, and interdisciplinary conference aims to draw attention to critically neglected modernist forms, movements and texts. It aims to bring together scholars from across Europe and beyond both to explore these 'alternative' modernisms and to consider the extent to which modernism(s) can itself be seen as (an) alternative. Submissions are invited on all aspects of the title and across all disciplines and fields, including art, fashion, design, literature, history, architecture, music, cultural studies and critical theory.
